I have enjoyed very much working with the Student Council this year. They have proved to be a very enthusiastic group. Some of the most important actions of the council this year were the naming of Terremere Field and Carington Hall, the revision of the point system, the Student Council Assembly and the Council dinner.

The Sequoia Union High School Board of Trustees has accomplished many things this year. Probably the most important is the purchase of the site for a south area high school and the awarding of a contract for its construction. It is scheduled for completion by January 15, 1951. Each new school, the one in the north and the one in the south, will have a capacity of eight hundred students. When the schools are completed, the congestion will be greatly relieved at Sequoia. Citizens of the two areas were to select names for the schools at the May trustees' election.

Sequoia's athletic field was enlarged by the removal of the eucalyptus trees and the turfing of the area. Lights were installed for night football games and other contests and events, and plans are being made for the replacement of bleachers with new ones or possibly a stadium.

The student government committee is one of the most outstanding and important organizations in Sequoia. It is the job of the committee to act as an advisory group to aid the student body in any problems which confront it.

The committee is responsible for bringing to the attention of the Student Council any part of the government which could be improved. The group is responsible for any amendments to the Constitution and sees that the amendments are kept in form and are added to the Constitution for use in the school government. The committee also sees that the government adheres to the Constitution.

Johnny Imbernon, THE COMMISSIONER OF WELFARE, is the head of all the student activities. His cabinet is the Board of Commissioners. Johnny acts as student body president at all important school functions, is the chairman of the Board of Welfare, supervises the Student Court, and is the liaison between the administration and the student body. Foremost of the things he accomplished was to bring about the Sequoia Student Leaders' Conference. The purpose of the conference was to promote and begin to establish a "Code of Conduct" to be carried out by the students of Sequoia. It is felt that if the leaders of Sequoia back a good code of conduct the entire student body will follow their example. Johnny organized the conference and was the spark which led to its success. Thank you, Johnny Imbernon, for bringing about the beginnings of the rebirth of school spirit here at Sequoia.

THE BOARD OF WELFARE. All governments have to have a police force. The Board of Welfare is that particular organization in Sequoia which keeps order and sees that the laws of the school are obeyed. This group is divided into several enforcement committees, among which are the committee to enforce traffic control, a special committee for investigating thefts from lockers, and the largest committee of all, the locker inspection committee. Several times a year this group spends a whole period opening and shutting lockers. Though the members of the Board of Welfare receive very little thanks they are a necessary part of Sequoia's student government.

The officials of the STUDENT COURT are appointed by the Board of Commissioners with the exception of the prosecutor, who is appointed by the Board of Welfare. By April this year court had handled 65 cases. Of these, four were dismissed because of lack of evidence; three defendants were found not guilty; while the rest were adjudged guilty. Only eight of the defendants were girls. Let's go through a typical court session: First of all the plaintiff is brought before the judges and is sworn in by the clerk. The charges are clarified and the plaintiff's side is heard. Then the defendant is brought in by the bailiff and is heard and questioned by the prosecutor; he is led away while the judges discuss the case, and decide upon a penalty. If the defendant admits his guilt he is usually given a lighter sentence than if he had pleaded innocent and was found guilty.

The Projection Crew, under the direction of Mr. Kimble, made it possible for many films to be brought to the classrooms this year for enjoyment as well as education.

"DAUGHTERS OF ATREUS"

The "Sequoia Players," under the direction of Mrs. Kiviaho, have produced a group of some of the finest productions this year that Sequoia has seen.

For the last four years, Fay Kidder has been active in the many affairs going on around the Sequoia campus. This is shown best by her active participation in the production of the very successful 1949-50 Varieties.

The Varieties of 1949-50 were a wonderful success and had a grand turnout, thanks to the hard work of the act managers and Fay Kidder.

San Francisco—Diana Grohs, Dave Blackmere, and Marilee Ritchie are shown in one of the scenes from Act I in the 1949-50 Varieties.

New Orleans—Act III brought Judy Younger out to do a charming dance at the Mardi Gras.

International Club: Mr. R. Ross, C. Mabie, R. Trouslot, W. Day, H. Gunderson, B. Harman, J. Hawes, and B. Dubbin. C. Marr, J. Stewart, S. Durham, P. Mangini, M. Levis, A. Weiner, M. Joubert-Vigne, and Y. Loustau.

The Camera Club, under the direction of Mr. Paul Bastow, was newly organized this year. There was a good turnout.

Art Club: Joan Ennis, Kay Dawson, Nancy Tapscott, Gregg Massegian, Judy Ennis, Ann Antonchok, Anita Wilson, Sue Durham, Mary Habelmann, Martha White, Jullie Brown, Mrs. Lambert, Martha Plante, Billie Clark and Charles Mabie.

The P. A. Crew: John Olson, Nils Nehlason, Mr. Brown, advisor; Barry Kauffman, and Mike Riordan.

The Sequoia Broadcaster's officers for the Fall Semester were Alan Robertson, Olsen Willsrud, Joanne Maiwald, and Lois Sunnergren. In the Spring Semester, Jerry Bogle, Mary Belle Sullivan, and Louise Martin.

The Sequoia Union High School Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Robert Smith, did a grand job this year in both the Midwinter and Spring Concerts.

Members of the Treble Clef are, top to bottom, C. Fanos, J. Glines, J. Orth, E. Cleveland, N. Kimball, S. Anderson, A. Younger, J. Hampton, N. Osterloh, C. Brown, L. Sillstrop, Mr. Wheatley, W. Mosher, C. Herd, and J. Ohlsson.

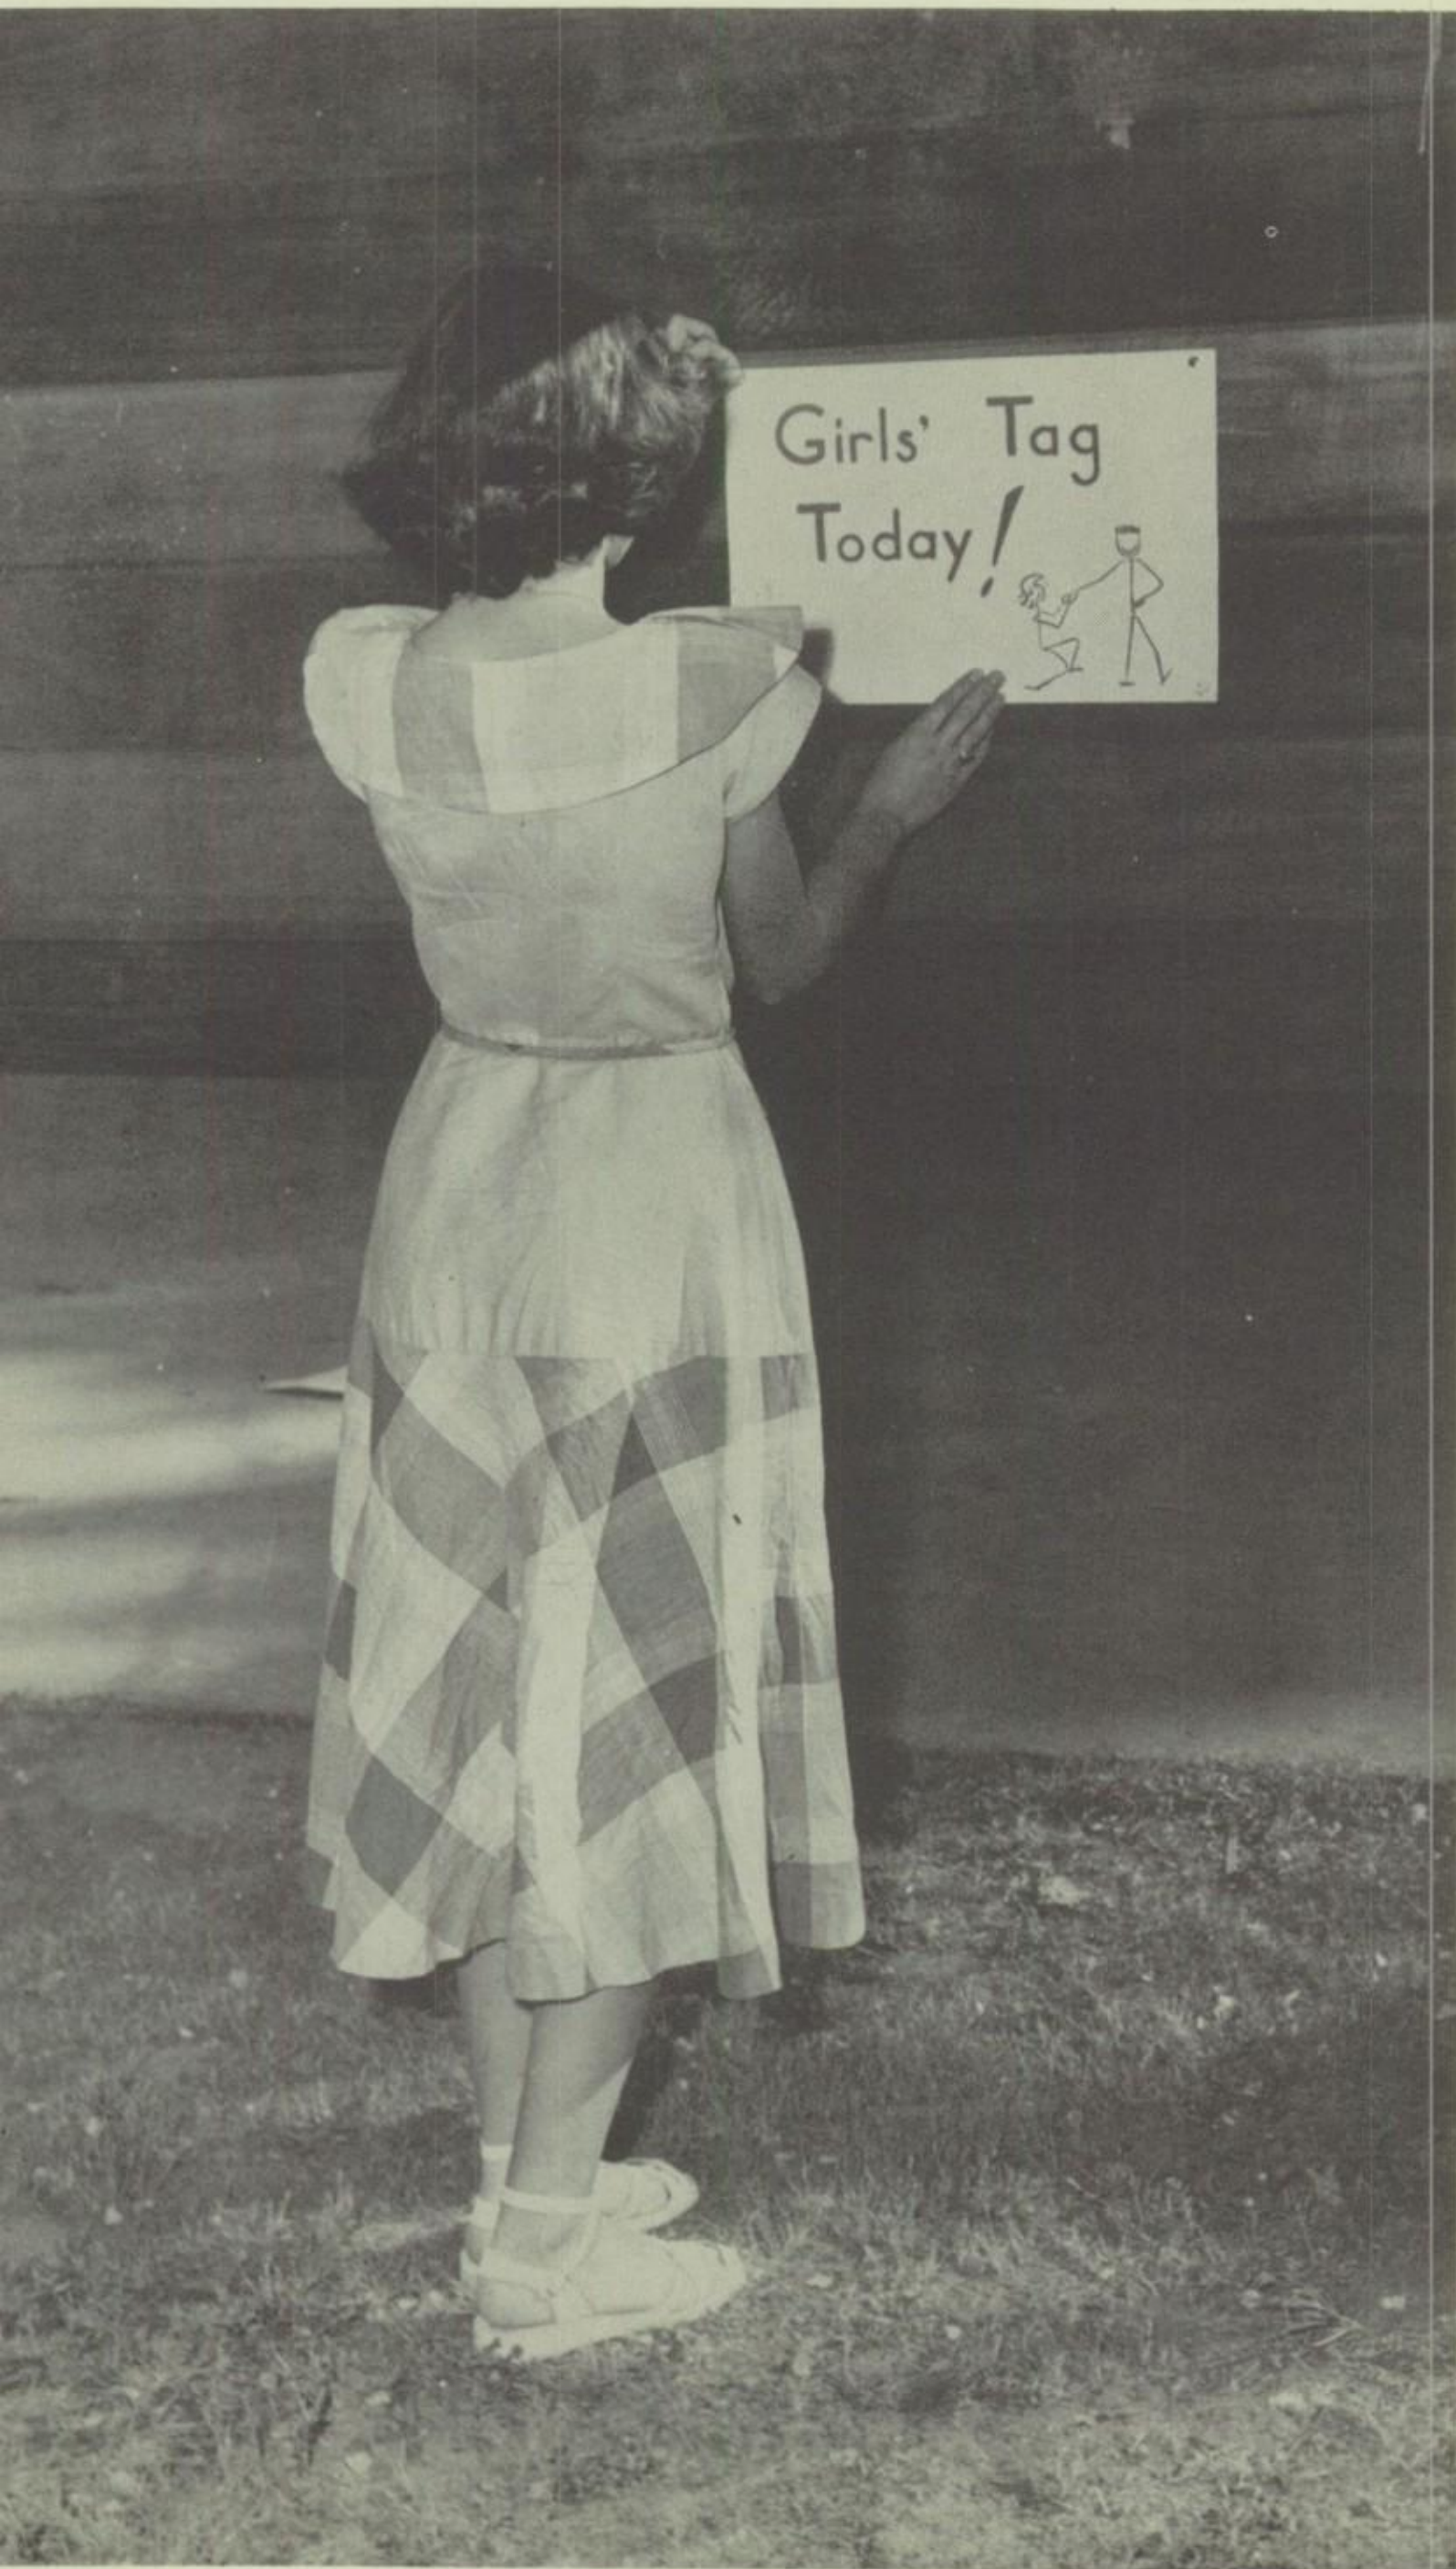

Part of the success of the Varieties this year was due to the excellent music furnished by the Dance Band.

MUSIC

During the football season, the Sequoia Union High School Band showed what it could do. Members put on an excellent show in their new uniforms.

RECREATION

Besides the many dances and other social activities, the noon recreation program has been greatly improved by the addition of the canopy, chuck wagons and sports facilities to the Rec Area. I have enjoyed very much working this year with an enthusiastic Recreation Board and the advisors, Mrs. Olds, Mr. Bogie and Jim Lark.

Times Still on Top

As a Sequoian I was proud to serve my school as Commissioner of Publications and Editor-in-Chief of the Sequoia Times for the past year. This year, as in many previous years, the Times took a first place national rating in the Columbia Scholastic Press Association contest. This award has been made possible only by the full cooperation of the upper staff and cub reporters. A paper can be put out only with its writers and editors working as a team, driving forward to the highest goal—satisfaction of the Times readers.

I give humble thanks to these editors and writers, as no one can quite conceive the actual hard work put into the Sequoia Times in order to bring it to the students each week.

Bigger and Better

This year, we of the Young Ideas staff have attempted to make the magazine represent the creative writing, art work, and photography of the students of Sequoia.

I have enjoyed working with my editorial staff and also having a part in starting the creative writing club, the Blotter Buddies. I feel that the 1950 edition of Young Ideas has been a success, thanks to the staff and our advisor, Miss Violet Palmer.

PUBLICITY

The highlight of the Publicity Department this year was "The Gaslight 'Gaieties." This dance was a terrific undertaking of the Publicity Board, and in my opinion was a huge success.

I want particularly to thank my advisor, Mr. Tompsett, for the assistance he has given me, and I hope succeeding commissioners will have as fine a year as I have had.

This year's Juniors managed the "Cherokee Chuckwagon" at the football games, and they made quite a large profit from the refreshments that were sold. The Junior Prom was called "Rhapsody in Blue" and was held at Devonshire Country Club. The class expected an attendance larger than that of any other previous dance.

Queen Marjorie Lageson

King Ronald Gianotti

President Ernest Sevier

Fantasy in Frost, the Senior Ball of 1950, was held at the Peninsula Country Club. Two hundred and thirty couples were present to dance among glittering snow flakes to the music of Paul Law's orchestra. Marjorie Lageson was crowned queen of the evening and ruled from a snowflake throne with King Ronald Gianotti. Other contestants for queen were: Janet Hampton, Barbara Johnson, Betty Johnson, and Fay Kidder.
